No. 663.

THE Boſton-Gazette, AND COUNTRY JOURNAL.

Containing the freſheſt Advices, Foreign and Domeſtic.

MONDAY, DECEMBER 14, 1767.

From the St. JAMES'S CHRONICLE.
To the Printer of The S. J. CHRONICLE.
SIR,

I Was exceedingly ſurpriſed to ſee a very ſenſible Letter in your Paper of September 23, conclude with the following Paragraph :

" The C——— of the E——— has never once varied from the noble Whig Principles of his Family ; he never truckled to the Man, to whom all truckle. His Abilities are ſuperior to thoſe of all Men ; he knows the Conſtitution of his Country better than any other, and what is more, he loves it."*

This Letter is, indeed, with great Propriety ſigned, The Ghoſt ; for no one living would preſume to give ſuch a Character of ſuch a Man ; a Man, whoſe real Character is as well known as that of any one Man in the Kingdom, and is diametrically oppoſite to the Deſcription above given.

The Ghoſt ſays, " He has never once varied from the noble Whig Principles of his Family" : On the contrary, has it not been the Buſineſs of his Life to laugh at all Principles, to ridicule all Public Spirit, to pay no Regard to his own Word, and to ſneer at every Man who expreſſed a Love for his Country and its Conſtitution ?

" He never truckled to the Man, to whom all truckle". That Man would never truſt him, nor will any Man, in all Probability, in the Station of a Firſt Miniſter, it being much more to his Advantage to employ a Perſon of moderate Abilities, with known Integrity, than one of great Parts, and no Principles. The former will command an Influence, the latter never can have any ; and, though he ſpeaks with the Voice of an Angel, he will ſpeak ſo as to be admired, but never to be believed.

The Ghoſt ſays, " He never once varied, &c." Surely he did not obtain the Names of Weathercock and Whirligigg from his Steadineſs, and theſe are Names univerſally given to him. But pray, Mr. Ghoſt, what are the noble Whig Principles of his Family ? Is the Support of General Warrants a Whig Principle ? The preſent Illuſtrious Head of his Family ſtrongly ſupported them, as alſo Extenſions of Exciſe, and was ſtrenuous againſt the Repeal of the Stamp Act, declaring frequently, according to Report, " that, if the—— would give him the Command of twelve old Regiments he would cram the Stamp Act down the Throats of the Americans." Are theſe the noble and Whig Principles of his Family ?

Look into the Liſt of the Minority againſt the Repeal, will you not find his Lordſhip's Subſtitute (and whom he jockeyed into this County, when he became a P—r) amongſt the foremoſt of that reſpectable Liſt ? Is not our other R—— (ſuppoſed to Act by his Influence) upon the ſame Minority Liſt, and was he not a vigorous Supporter of General Warrants, Exciſe, and arbitrary Meaſures of G———t ? Is not his L——— known to be zealouſly and implicitly attached to the moſt obnoxious Man in the three Kingdoms ? And is he not perpetually reviling and defaming the only Man that probably can ſave them from impending Deſtruction, and who firſt made his L——— of any Conſequence in either ? The E— of C— is well known to have made his L——'s Peace with the late ———, and to have brought him out into public Notice ; but Gratitude is not among the noble Principles of this noble Family.

But, to return to the worthy C——— of the E——, if he has never once varied from the Principles of his Family, how came a certain Perſon belonging to it, (a Man of unblemiſhed Reputation, and one univerſally beloved) to be diſtinguiſhed by the name of honeſt C— ? I ſay, Mr. Ghoſt, how came this Gentleman of the ſame Family to be diſtinguiſhed by the Name of Honeſt C—— ?

But the Ghoſt ſays, " His Abilities are ſuperior to thoſe of all Men." I will tell the Ghoſt a Story, and ſo have done with him, at leaſt till he appears again.

This Favourite of the Ghoſt's, being at Dinner with the late Lord W— at W——, in the Decline of his Life, took Occaſion to railly the old Man, and to turn him into ridicule before his Gueſts. Lord W— bore it for ſome Time with great Good-Nature, but at laſt interrupted him thus : " C——, it is no difficult Matter to ſhine at the Expence of an old Man : I admire your Parts and Wit, but I will tell you one Thing.—I have been ever of Opinion, that Mankind in general are more upon a Level than you ſeem to think, and that where great Gifts are beſtowed, ſome proportionable Alloy is added alſo, to bring Men down to one common Pitch and Standard. I could give you many Inſtances to confirm this my Opinion ; but, at preſent, I ſhall confine myſelf to you alone : It has pleaſed God to bleſs you with uncommon Abilities, and a great Underſtanding ; but it has pleaſed him likewiſe to give you a Heart that will for ever damn all the Purpoſes of your Head."

I am, Sir, your's, &c.

NO GHOST.

Meſſieurs EDES & GILL,

A Writer who ſigns himſelf A. Z. having criticiſed on the Chronological Table in my Almanack, and publiſhed his Piece in the Newport Mercury November 30th, from whence you copied it into your Paper of the 7th of December ; I deſire you will inſert the following Anſwer.

This notable Critic ſays, That Mein and Fleeming, Printers in Boſton, the Publiſhers of that Almanack " have mentioned the Rebellion in Scotland in 1715, and " the Battle of Culloden in 1746, but why did they omit " the Rebellion in Scotland in 1745, and the Battle of " Falkirk, where the Troops of King George II. were " beat by the Rebels, and the brave Col. Gardiner loſt " his Life, why they ſhould omit ſo material an Affair as " that Rebellion, and the total Defeat of the Rebels " by the Duke of Cumberland, I can't conceive."

Maſter, A. Z. The Battle of Falkirk was omitted, as well as a Thouſand other Battles, for want of Room :— But I muſt inform you, that the brave Col. Gardiner was killed at the Battle of Preſton Pans, on the 21ſt Day of September 1745, and not at the Battle of Falkirk, which was fought near 4 Months after, on January 17th 1746.——Do not be aſtoniſhed either, when I tell you, that the Battle of Culloden, and the total Defeat of the Rebels by the Duke of Cumberland, are the ſame.

Indeed Mr. A. Z. I believe you are concerned with ſome Almanack publiſhed in New-England, that ſells ſlowly ; I therefore take Pleaſure in informing you, that my Almanacks are nearly all ſold.

Poor Maſter A. Z. You have diſplayed both your Willingneſs to find Fault, and your groſs Ignorance ; you have been very unfortunate, and I ſincerely pity you.

ISAAC BICKERSTAFF.

Meſſieurs Edes & Gill,
Pleaſe to inſert the following.

MANY ſevere, and ſome very juſt remarks have lately been made upon the groſs falſhoods ſo frequently offered to the Public in the weekly papers; but I know not any perſon who ſo baſely injures his country, purely, as it ſeems, for the ſake of lying, as the True Patriot. ◊ I ſhall paſs by his former audacious attempts to miſlead the honeſt minds of his readers, and only take notice of a paragraph or two in his laſt Monday's exhibition, one of which is as follows, "The true ◊ Patriot humbly "acquaints thoſe gentlemen that he will continue "to advertiſe his countrymen with every circum"ſtance that he thinks may be of ſervice to them, "and now repeats that forty thouſand yards of "linnen were never manufactured at Dartmouth "in one year, nor thirty thouſand pair of womens "ſhoes at Lynn; and further informs the Junto, "as well as others, that the ſubſcription papers, "as he has been well informed, for promoting Oe"conomy at Charleſtown and Dedham, are as free "from blot or dirt, as when firſt manufactured or "bought at the Milton Paper Manufactory."

To the firſt of theſe articles, concerning linnen cloth, I can only ſay, that perſons of good judgment have mentioned to me their belief that forty thouſand yards were manufactured at Dartmouth the year paſt.

The ſecond article, relating to the ſhoes, I have had a better opportunity to acquaint myſelf with, and find upon a very careful enquiry, that there are in the town of Lynn, at leaſt 200 perſons, each of whom every day in the year, Sundays only excepted, make one pair of womens ſhoes, which is 1200 pair every week, which multiplied by 52, the number of weeks in a year, amounts to ſixty two thouſand four hundred pair in a year; more than double the number neceſſary to prove the true Patriot ◊ a falſe writer. For the truth of what I aſſert, I appeal to the inhabitants of Lynn. It ſhould be remarked that the two articles already noticed, are related by the ◊ True Patriot as things which he knew to be true—The following article concerning the ſubſcription papers, from what he calls good information; but it is certain that the ſubſcription paper was ſigned at Dedham by the majority of the freeholders preſent at a meeting called for that purpoſe, before the adjournment of that meeting; and likewiſe the ſubſcription paper was ſigned at Charleſtown by a very conſiderable number of the reſpectable inhabitants before the True ◊ Patriot's publication; and this he might have known, had he enquired of any inhabitant of thoſe towns; ſo that his ignorance (if he was ignorant) was criminal, and affronting to the Public—For the truth of my account, I appeal to the Towns of Charleſtown and Dedham.

Having detected the True ◊ Patriot in the above inſtances, I think myſelf under no obligation to believe, upon his aſſertion, that the Printers of the Boſton Evening-Poſt were threatned with being "obliged to ſacrifice the truſt and confidence repoſed in them"; but if they were threatened, it is moſt likely the menaces were contained in ſome anonymous Letter which the True Patriot ◊ himſelf may very probably be the author of.—Artifices like theſe the advocates for freedom diſdain: Their cauſe needs no ſupport from the ſwaggering bully, or the knaviſh jeſuit.

The impudent ſneer at the worthy || Selectmen of the Town of Boſton, carries with it to every reader a conviction of the baſeneſs of the author.—The people have a ſtrong ſenſe of the wiſdom and integrity with which the Selectmen have acted, and their names will be tranſmitted with honor to poſterity, though ſlander, envy and malice, ſhould employ their million weapons to prevent it.

Contemptible True Patriot, ◊ ſtudy truth, and behave with good manners.

I ſhall now ſpeak a word or two to the Gentleman (as he more than once ſtiles himſelf) who thinks he was ſo much abuſed in the Gazette of November 30, and would inform him of the impropriety of taxing others with faults for which he is himſelf ſo notorious, and caution him againſt another error, which is, his random attack upon every body, becauſe ſomebody has offended him: If this conduct was criminal in his oppoſers, it is not leſs ſo in him. His unmanly reflections upon Meſſieurs Edes and Gill was an ungrateful return for their ſteady adherence to the intereſt of their country, & tenderneſs to his character in particular, which was expreſſed by their waiting on and deſiring him to put it in their power to omit printing what* has now ſo deeply galled him. It is the general expectation, that the Gentleman, after conſidering his own character, will never again call any thing beſides himſelf (by way of eminence) "a ſink of meanneſs and defamation." And I recommend to the Gentleman a paſſage which ſuch a Gentleman as he ought always to keep in mind, viz. With what meaſure ye mete, it ſhall be meaſured to you again.

I now addreſs myſelf to the whole corporation of journeymen ſcribblers.——

Gentlemen,

IF you have nothing more important than what you have lately produced; if you have only True Patriot ◊ arguments to offer, pray borrow wiſdom enough to know you are Fools, and by ſtopping your hands, deprive your enemies of future opportunities to impeach your underſtanding and your honeſty: But if you can by fair deductions from principles of the Britiſh Conſtitution, juſtify the late λ Acts for impoſing duties on the Americans, if you can prove we are repreſented in the Britiſh Parliament, or make it appear that we can be legally taxed without repreſentation, if you can ſhew how we may enjoy our freedom and property when the fruits of our labour, and the whole, or any part of our property may be taken away whenever G. Britain pleaſes, or are able to convince the Americans that they have no right to enjoy freedom and property, but ought to be ſlaves; you will then do ſignal ſervice to the cauſe in which you are engaged.

Ovid. de Tristibus.

* The Printers would inform the Author, that the Piece which occaſioned one of them to wait on the Gentleman, has not yet been made public, as it contain'd ſeverer Reflections on him than either of thoſe which were.—It was ſuppreſs'd on Account of the private Converſation which paſs'd between the Gentleman and him.

PHILADELPHIA, November 30.

Saturday laſt Capt. Bulkley, arrived here in ſeven Weeks from Liſbon, by whom we have the following Intelligence, viz. That the Count de la Lippe, Generaliſſimo of his moſt Faithful Majeſty's Troops, had arrived there from England, whither he had lately been ſent on an important Negociation to the Britiſh Court; the Reſult of which remained a Secret: But it evidently appeared, that the Portugueſe were extremely apprehenſive of a War between Great-Britain and Portugal, as their Court did not ſeem inclined to pay the Sum of Money demanded by that of Great-Britain.—or to adjuſt, in a proper Manner, the Differences ſubſiſting between the two Courts—That Intelligence was received at Liſbon, that the Portugueſe had retaken from the Spaniards a Place in the Brazils, the Name of which the Captain could not remember; but it is the ſame that the Spaniards made themſelves Maſters of in the late War—That a Regiſter Ship was daily expected at Liſbon, from the Brazils, with a large Quantity of Caſh on board—And that a Portugueſe Vice Roy, from the Eaſt-Indies, was arrived at Liſbon, but was immediately arreſted and confined in a ſtrong Caſtle, without permitting his Friends or Relations to ſee him—the Reaſon of which was not publicly known.

Captain Bulkley informs that not one Veſſel was arrived from this Continent at Liſbon, when he came away.

NEW-YORK, December 3.

About the 1ſt of November, 40 Leagues off the Capes of Virginia a Double deck'd Snow was ſeen, without a living Creature on board. Juſt above her Bends was a Hole about 6 Feet long, over which a Piece of Canvas was nail'd: She had a Hhh. of Rum, ſome Fruit and French Letters on board, but the Weather was ſo bad, that Capt. Huffington could neither bring her in nor take any thing out.

We hear from the Eaſt End of Long-Iſland, that ſome Time laſt Week, a pink ſtern'd Schooner, with two Men on board, was forced on Shore near Southold, in a Gale of Wind: The Men ſay, one Vandyke was Maſter of her, who was knock'd overboard in the Gale, by the Boom, and drowned:——This muſt be a Schooner that was Advertiſed in the Philadelphia Papers of the 21ſt of September laſt, to be run away with by Vandyke, from Duck-Creek:—'Tis ſaid the Schooner may be got off again.

Capt. Collins, ſays Markets are very low in all the Windward Iſlands, particularly Flour, which was retailed in Antigua, at 16*ſ.* per C. and a Boſton Veſſel was taking on board about 1200 Barrels, to carry to Boſton.—Capt. Vardil from this Port, finding he could not diſpoſe of any of his Cargo to Windward, was gone to Curacoa.

Tueſday laſt near 20 Negroes received the Diſcipline of the whip, at the public poſt, having been detected the thurſday night before, in a junketing frolick, deſigned at a poor white man's houſe, in the Out-ward of this city, were two pigs ready for the fire, and two gallons of wine awaited them; and though the proofs were not poſitive, they were ſuch as left the deſign out of doubt: It is ſuch houſes that ruin ſervants, as the receiver is as bad as the thief.

[Complaints have frequently been made that in this Town (Boſton) the Negroes practice thus junketing at Houſes the moſt out of the Way of being heard, and continue almoſt whole Nights, feaſting on what they pilfer from their Maſters and Miſtreſſes Cellars & other Ways: Such a general Diſcipline as the above would be a Means of curing ſuch Frolicking, at leaſt for ſome Time.]

BOERHAAVE's Chymical Tincture, prepared from an original Receipt, of which there is not perhaps any true Copy now extant.—It is a powerful Deobſtruent, and an excellent Stomachic. It removes Diſorders of the Kidneys, Liver and Meſentery. Is greatly ſerviceable in Hectics, and with Caution may be uſed in the moſt violent inflamatory Fevers. It is uncommonly efficacious in the Scurvy and Jaundice. As it is apt to increaſe the Diſcharge of Urine, it will not be adviſeable to uſe it in Caſes where that Evacuation is too copious.—It is to be given in chronic Caſes Morning and Evening, to Adults from 40 to 60 Drops, to Children from 6 to 30, in Water or Wine, upon an empty Stomach.—In acute Caſes, it may be given once in 3 or 4 Hours, as Occaſion may require.

From the PHILADELPHIA CHRONICLE.

Mr. GODDARD,

By giving the following Piece a Place in your uſeful and entertaining Chronicle, you will much oblige your conſtant Reader, and very humble Servant, I. S.

AT a Time when a Scarcity of Money, and conſequently a Stagnation of Trade, are the general Complaints, and freſh Duties are daily laying upon the European Manufactures, it behoves every Friend of the Britiſh Colonies in America, to uſe his utmoſt Endeavours, to ward off the fatal Conſequences which muſt naturally attend the Continuation of theſe Grievances. Groſly miſrepreſented as the Colonies have been, by ſome who correſpond with Men in Power, who, for their own private Intereſt, have recommended Meaſures that tend to alienate the Affection of the Colonies from the Mother Country, our Public Affairs are now in a very critical Situation.

Our Neighbours of ||Boſton, duly ſenſible of this, & that tho' their Prudence could not have prevented the Calamities that now threaten them, yet it might do much in diſappointing their bad Effects, have been purſuing Meaſures for leſſening Foreign Imports, countenancing Frugality, and encouraging their own Manufactures, which laudable Example has been followed by Rhode-Iſland, Connecticut, New-York, New-Jerſey, and by this Province.

North-America, which extends above Two Thouſand Miles, yields in great Plenty, moſt of the Neceſſaries, and even Conveniences of Life, which are the Production of Europe, and why then may not our Manufactures ſupply the Place of European? The manufacturing of Paper, upon which ſo exhorbitant a Duty has been laid, now demands our particular Attention. The Hollanders, owing to their Care and Frugality, manufacture Paper at leaſt 20 per Cent. lower than the Engliſh, & export large Quantities of Linnen Rags yearly to England. The City of Dublin, about the Year —, by ſmall Premiums, for the three Perſons of the Female Sex, who collected the greateſt Quantity of Rags, procured in a very ſhort Time, more than a ſufficient Quantity for their own Conſumption. And if the ſame Meaſure was purſued by the Inhabitants of Pennſylvauia, and the neighbouring Provinces, the Linen Rags, of which great Quantities are deſtroyed in every City, it would ſoon enable us to keep within ourſelves, the great Sums of Money which are annually exported for that Article.

PHILO-PATRIÆ.

St. John's, (in Antigua,) November 11.

We hear from Dominica that Lieutenant Governor Scott died there laſt Week, after a very ſhort Illneſs.

HALIFAX, October 29.

On Monday laſt ſailed His Majeſty's Ship Mermaid, Capt. Dean, for England, with whom went Capt. Steele, of the 29th Regiment, the Rev. Mr. Eagleſon, and ſeveral others from this Place.

The ſame Day arrived the Ship Eltham, Capt. Philips, in 10 Weeks paſſage from London, with Naval Stores, and Military Cloathing; by whom came Lieutenant Bulkely of the 29th Regiment.

Sunday laſt ſailed His Majeſty's Sloop Betſey, Capt. Evans, on a Cruize.

Nov. 12. A few days ſince a ſloop, in her paſſage from Annapolis-Royal for this place, the property of John Harris, Eſq; was unfortunately caſt away in the gut of Annapolis. The Veſſel and Cargo entirely loſt, but providentially the crew were all ſaved. Her Cargo conſiſted of Flour, Butter, Cheeſe, Apples, and many other Articles of Proviſion.

Tueſday laſt arrived His Majeſty's Schooner Hope, Capt. Dawſon, from Newfoundland.

Nov. 19. On Sunday laſt arrived His Majeſty's Ship Glaſgow, Capt. Allen, from New-York.

We are credibly informed the French Inhabitants who were Settlers on the Iſlands of St. Peter's and Miquelon in Newfoundland, have lately entirely deſerted thoſe Places and diſperſed to different Parts.

This Morning arrived the Ship Hopewell, Capt. Mc Gowen, in 11 Weeks from Londonderry, with ſeveral Families as Settlers in this Province.

PHILADELPHIA, December 3.

From Lewis-Town we learn, that on the 21ſt ult. a ſmall Schooner put in there, with two Men in her, which proved to be the ſame that was mentioned in No. 2030 of this Paper under the Boſton Head, to be run away with from the Iſle of Shoals; the Men are in Cuſtody, and the Veſſel ſecured for the Owner.—They ſay the Schooner belongs to Mr. George How, of Portſmouth, in New-England, and that they were blown by contrary Winds into our Bay.

NEWPORT, December 7.

AT a Town-Meeting called by Order of the Town-Council, Thurſday, November 26, 1767.

JOB BENNET, Eſq; choſen Moderator.

Voted, That the Hon. Joſeph Wanton, jun. Eſq; Dep. Governor, Abraham Redwood, Eſq; Henry Ward, Eſq; Mr. William Ellery, George Hazard, Eſq; Mr. John Collins, Job Bennet, Eſq; Mr. Evan Malbone, Dr. John Tweedy, Mr. Charles Wickham, Joſias Lyndon, Eſq; John Tanner, Eſq; Peleg Thurſton, Eſq; Joſeph G. Wanton, Eſq; and Mr. Peleg Barker, or the major Part of them, be a Committee to conſider of the Propoſal made to this Town, by the Town-Council, for encouraging Induſtry, Frugality, and our own Manufactures, and make Report to this Meeting, which ſtands adjourned to Friday the 4th of December next.

Friday, December 4, 1767.

THE Town met according to Adjournment:——The Committee preſented the following Report, viz.

WHEREAS the exceſſive Uſe of foreign Superfluities is the chief Cauſe of the preſent diſtreſſed State of this Town, as it is thereby drained of its Money, which Misfortune is likely to be encreaſed by Means of the late additional Burthens and Impoſitions on the Trade of the Colony, which threaten the Country with Poverty & Ruin:

It is therefore Voted, That this Town will take all prudent and legal Meaſures to encourage the Produce and Manufactures of this Colony, and to leſſen the Uſe of Superfluities, and particularly the following enumerated Articles imported from abroad—[The enumerated Articles are in Subſtance the ſame with thoſe unanimouſly Voted by this Town]

'WHEREAS this Colony labours under a heavy Debt incurred in the Courſe of the late War; and the Inhabitants, by this Means, muſt for ſome Time be ſubject to very burthenſome Taxes: And as our Trade hath for ſome Years been on the Decline, and is now particularly under great Embarraſment and heavy Impoſitions, our Medium very ſcarce, and the Balance of Trade greatly againſt this Country: We the Subſcribers, being ſenſible that it is abſolutely neceſſary, in Order to extricate us out of theſe embarraſſed and diſtreſſed Circumſtances, to promote Induſtry, Oeconomy and Manufactures among ourſelves, and by theſe Means prevent the unneceſſary Importation of European Commodities, the exceſſive Uſe of which threatens the Country with Poverty and Ruin, DO promiſe and engage to and with each other, That we will encourage the Uſe and Conſumption of all Articles manufactured in any of the Britiſh American Colonies, and more eſpecially in this Colony, and particularly of the Paper manufactured in this Colony; and that we will not, from and after the 31ſt of January next enſuing, purchaſe any of the following Articles, which ſhall be imported from abroad after that Time, to wit: Loaf Sugar, &c. except ſuch Houſhold Furniture as cannot be procured of our own Manufacture.

'And we further agree, That, at the Funeral of any our Relations or Friends, we will not give Scarfs nor Rings to any Perſon; nor Gloves to any, except the Miniſters attending, which Gloves ſhall be of the Manufacture of ſome of the Britiſh Colonies in America; and that we will not ourſelves, nor ſuffer any of our Families, to make Uſe of any Mourning upon the Death of even the neareſt Relation; nor upon ſuch an Occaſion procure any new Garments but what ſhall be abſolutely neceſſary.'

Voted unanimouſly, That the above Report be accepted; and that the Reſolutions preſented by ſaid Committee paſs as a Vote of this Town.

And it is further Voted, That the Town-Clerk draw a Number of Subſcription Papers, and give the following Gentlemen, (who are choſen a Committee to get the ſame ſigned by the Inhabitants of this Town) viz. The Hon. Joſeph Wanton, jun. Eſq; Deputy-Governor, Henry Ward, Eſq; Mr. William Ellery, George Hazard, Eſq; Mr. John Collins, Mr. Nathaniel Coggeſhall, Mr. Charles Wickham, Dr. John Tweedy, John Tanner, Eſq; Joſias Lyndon, Eſq; Joſeph G. Wanton, Eſq; Mr. Thomas Freebody, Henry Marchant, Eſq; Mr. John Read, and Mr. Chriſtopher Ellery: And that they make Report at the next Town-Meeting.

Voted, That the Town-Council be deſired to get theſe Reſolutions printed as ſoon as poſſible, and ſend a Copy thereof to the Town-Council of each Town in this Colony, in order that the ſame may be promoted in their ſeveral Towns.

It is with the greateſt Pleaſure we can inform our Brethren of the neighbouring Colonies, that there is the faireſt Proſpect that the Plan||for promoting Frugality, Induſtry, and our own Manufactures, will be attended here with very happy Effects; and that the People in general are at preſent actuated with a Spirit of diſcouraging as much as poſſible, the farther Importation of European Manufactures.—Many Perſons are determined to uſe their Influence in putting a Stop to the deſtructive and pernicious Effects attending the enormous Conſumption of foreign Teas, which muſt otherwiſe ſoon render us a poor weak, and debilitated People.—The Hyperion or Labradore Tea is much eſteemed, add by great Numbers vaſtly preferred to the poiſonous Bohea.

We have heard of many Gentlemen in Town, of Figure & Fortune, who are determined to cloath themſelves and Families for the future, with the Manufactures of this Country; from one, in particular, we have received the following:

A Gentleman in Town, a hearty Friend to the Government, and the propoſed Scheme||for encouraging Frugality, Induſtry, and Manufactures, wants a Winter Coat; he would chooſe to have it manufactured in this Government, but will have no Objection if it comes from a neighbouring one, if it be good: Any Perſon that will bring a ſuitable Pattern, for his Purpoſe, to the Printer of this Paper, will be told who the Perſon is that wants it, who, if it ſuits him, will pay generouſly for it, and a Dollar gratis.

Laſt Week his Majeſty's Ship the Garland, Captain St. John, ſailed from this Port for England. She carried off —(what the Viper brought here about two Years ſince)— the memorable Stamped Paper, which was ſent by the Mother Country, for the Uſe of her Children in this Colony; and now returned, in order to be unpacked and diſtributed.

WHEREAS, on Friday Night laſt, a ſcandalous Advertiſement was fixed upon the Door of the Court-Houſe in this Town, deſiring the Inhabitants to meet together the next Day, and ſeize the Money in the Cuſtom-Houſe, (which, it was thought, was to have been put that Day on board his Majeſty's Ship the Garland) by Way of Repriſals for the Money due to this Colony from the Crown, the Payment of which is ſtopped by the Lords of the Treaſury: Which Advertiſement was evidently calculated to interrupt the Peace and good Order of the Town, by promoting Tumults and Riots; and was alſo done with Deſign to bring the good People of this Town and Colony under the Imputation of contriving to rob his Majeſty's Revenue, and of throwing off all the Reſtraints of Law and Government;——It is therefore Voted, That a Reward of FIFTY POUNDS lawful Money be paid out of the Town-Treaſury to the Perſon or Perſons who ſhall inform againſt the Author or Authors of the ſaid infamous Advertiſement, upon his or their Conviction:— And that the Town-Clerk be, and he hereby is, directed to inſert an Advertiſement hereof in the Newport Mercury.

Wm. Coddington, Town-Clerk.

BOSTON, December 14.

We are informed, That the Great and General Court or Aſſembly of this Province, which ſtands prorogued to Wedneſday the 30th Day of December, Inſt. will then meet to do Buſineſs.

On the 11*th Inſt. died here*, MARY OTIS, the virtuous Conſort of the Honorable JAMES OTIS, Eſq; of Barnſtable. We hear that her Remains are to be interred at Three o'Clock this Afternoon.

Yeſterday departed this Life, in the 77*th Year of his Age, Captain* BENJAMIN MULBURY, of this Town, formerly a noted Sea Commander. His Remains, we hear, are to be intered on Wedneſday next.

Laſt Thurſday Evening was married here, Mr. JOHN SCOTT, Merchant, to Miſs JUDITH CHARDON, eldeſt Daughter of PETER CHARDON, Eſq; of this Town.

A conſiderable Number of our reſpectable Ladies have agreed with each other, that they will not uſe any Foreign Teas from the 10*th of December Inſtant, to the* 10*th of December* 1768.

The Muſick of the Spinning Wheel is now heard in many of our beſt Families; and it is ſurprizing to obſerve how many are lately ſet a going through the Town.

We hear the Towns of Middleboro', Mendon, Milton and Kingſton, have unanimouſly come into the ſame Regulations reſpecting Oeconomy, with this Town.||

Extract of a Letter from Halifax, dated Nov. 28, 1767.

"This Day arrived the Senegal, in 7 Weeks from England, and brings Advice of the Death of the Duke of York at ———, on the 17*th September, of a malignant Fever, after* 14 Days Illneſs.—Governor Spry is to ſail for his Government of Barbadoes in the Beaver Man of War about the 1ſt of January. He has received his Commiſſion by the Way of New-York."

We hear that one Day laſt Week died at Salem, Mr. Joſeph Cabbot, of that Place, Merchant.

The Practice of the Town||relative to Funerals, by which a Saving has been made of 100,000 is to give Gloves only to Bearers and Miniſters: to make Uſe of no other Mourning for the neareſt Relations, than a Weed in the Hat for Men, and a black Bonnet, Gloves, Ribbons and Handkerchiefs for Women.—Fifteen Hundred or two Thouſand Pair of Britiſh-made Gloves have been given or rather thrown away at one Funeral, before the new practized took Place—and ſuch Families in Boſton as then expended £100. or £150 Sterling on thoſe Occaſions, now expend ſcarcely £8. What a Saving will there be to the Province by the ſeveral Towns following Boſton in this grand Particular.

Meſſieurs EDES & GILL,

If the following don't take up the Place of ſomething of more Importance, pleaſe to give it a Place in your Paper—— noted for detecting Villains.

AS the Time approaches that our Colliers extort an extravagant Price for their Coal and Coal Brands; thoſe whoſe Buſineſs it is, would do well to inſpect the Stowage as well as the Admeaſurement of the Load, as ſome Colliers have been detected unloading them on the Neck, and reloading them acroſs each other, as ſo many Chimney Funnels. This is Fact.
